

Air1 serves the local community by providing commercial free Christian music that provides a positive impact on any community it serves. To possibly have that replaced by an LPFM braodcaster just does not seem fair or right. Before you decide you should listen either on a local station or at air1.com. Thank you.